

2012 National Dynamite Series

Points scoring for 2011 Victorian qualifying rounds.

The rules for the National Dynamite Series stipulate that points in the qualifying rounds be allocated for results in Moto's and also finals on a 50/50 split.

Outlined below is how these points will be calculated at Victorian qualifying rounds.

Moto's

At the end of the Moto's, Eligible Victorian riders will be ranked from 1st down using standard Moto points of 1 point for 1st 2 points for 2nd etc. Vic riders will then be allocated points as per the table below disregarding any interstate riders or riders riding up an age.

Finals

Riders in a quarter final who do not transfer receive an additional 5 points.

Riders in a semi final who do not transfer receive an additional 10 points.

Finalists who make the final will be allocated points as per the table below.

Invitation finalists (if conducted) do not receive any additional points

Classes with less than 9 riders, (at events where dead man finals are not run) will receive finals points allocated using each riders overall result. Interstate riders and riders riding up an age do not qualify and are dropped for points allocation in the finals. Those points will not be awarded. i.e. riders do not move up that position. (Finals only)
